

St. John Family and Friends Camping Trip

June 13th – 15th 2014

Who: Everyone is welcome!

You're all part of our church family (single or married, kids or no kids, members or not, we just hope everyone will join us for the pitch in and worship on Saturday.)

What: Family and friends camp out, and / or Day Trip and Pitch In, Sat. June 14th at 11:00 a.m.

Where: Starve Hollow State Recreation Area
4345 S. 275 W., Vallonia, IN 47281
(1.5 hours south of Indianapolis)

When: June 13th – 15th (Friday – Sunday)

Why: We bring families together to strengthen bonds and help build new ones. If you don't camp, join us on Sat. beginning at 11 a.m. There will be a camp friendly worship service followed by a pitch-in. Saturday afternoon we plan some group games, like volleyball, corn toss, or a trip to the local farm market.

How: Contact John Durkin at church ext. 15, or send an e-mail jdurkin@stjohnindy.org. Make your reservation on line then let me know your site so I can mark it on our map.

Cost: $26 per night for a site with electricity
$5 parking if you come on Saturday.

Reservation Information: Go to their new website at www.camp.in.gov and look up Starve Hollow then click on the green button bar that says Date Range Availability or call 1-866-622-6746.

Sites: We recommend electric sites (South) 1 - 23 or 65 - 90. The playground is very close for the kids, and the bathhouse is an easy walk - for full hook up use 204 – 212.

Look: There is a beach for swimming, a long walk all the way around the lake, mountain bike trails, hiking, boat rental, fishing, softball fields, horseshoe pits, sand volleyball court, and some beautiful views. Don't forget the corn toss tournament!
